ABOUT ME

Hi! I'm Nurin, and welcome to this little corner of the galaxy. This website is inspired by a Pixar characters, Buzz Lightyear. which has been my childhood movies that I will watch many times. I too built another section in this website which is some of my playlist. Because I thought, why not combine what I enjoy listening to every day—music too.

ABOUT ME

I'm someone who enjoys trying all kinds of activities. I love running, playing netball, reading(not really), exploring new hobbies, and learning new things. I am now actively involving myself in volleyball activities. I may not be an expert at everything, but I believe every new experience teaches me something valuable.

SKILLS

- I believe I am good at singing.
- I am still learning martial arts.
